

Roskilde Festival 4 July 2020

Dear neighbours,

Since Roskilde Festival has been cancelled this year, we're making our own festival in the backyard.

You may notice a little noise during the day, but we'll be careful not to turn it up to 11. We'll switch off the music at midnight – but we'll keep the party going (only in a more quiet fashion).

You're much welcome to drop by for a round of beer bowling 😊
